JETIX EUROPE AND CANALSAT AGREE CARRIAGE DEAL

Amsterdam, The Netherlands and London, UK – Jetix Europe N.V. (AMEX: JETIX; Reuters: JETIX.AS; Bloomberg: JETIX.NA) today announced that a multi-year agreement has been reached with French platform, CANALSAT, to continue carrying its channel in France.

This new agreement signals a joint objective of strengthening their relationship in order to offer Jetix both a prominent audience and position in France.

Paul Taylor, Chief Executive Officer for Jetix Europe, said: “I am pleased to have struck a deal with CANALSAT that guarantees long term carriage for our channel and we look forward to continuing to offer its’ younger subscribers some of their favourite Jetix programmes in the future.”

Maxime Saada, Marketing Director of the CANAL+ group and Director of CANALSAT, is pleased that this new agreement reinforces the mutual trust that began many years ago. “Our aim is to continue to offer both now and in the future, the best kids channel line-up in the market. Not only the widest range but also the best quality programming that satisfies the expectations of our young viewers. CANALSAT offers and only selects quality channels appreciated by its subscribers, and Jetix is one of them”.
